Medieval Fair in Noia

The Medieval Fair in Noia has been celebrated from the last ten years at the second weekend in July. It is one of the scarce Spanish fairs in which live artisan exhibitions take place. The streets are decorated as in the epoch and the old city recovers its former splendour. For two days, in the old zone in Noia, several stands of craftsmen and food are set. Furthermore, as it is traditional in this kind of celebrations, Musical street bands performances and games are organized.
